

Changes in number of International students in Australia

By: Amelia Nguyen

Growth in Number of International Students in Australia

Australia is one of the best destinations for international students.

There has been a strong growth of international students in Australia.

VIC, NSW and QLD are the top destinations for international students.

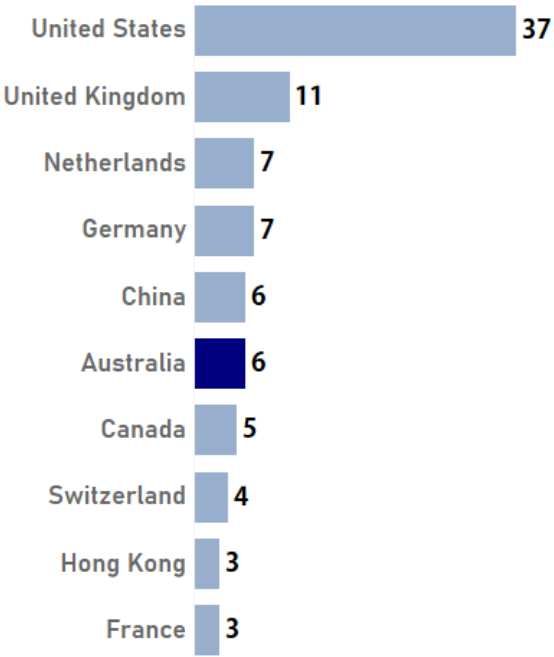

Most international students are pursuing Business and IT fields.

6

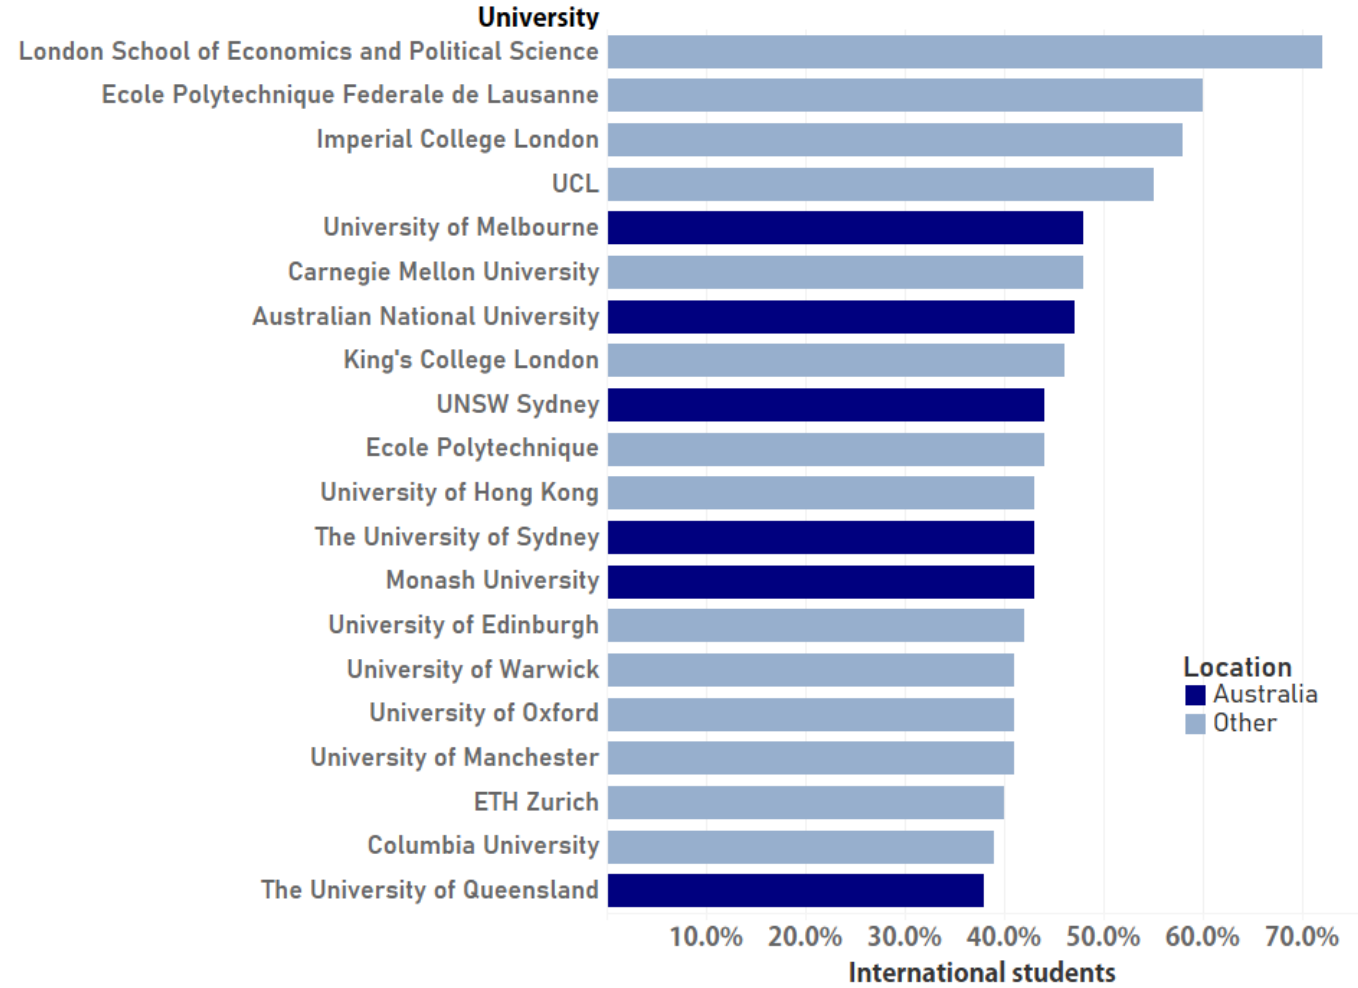

OF TOP 100
UNIVERSITIES IN THE
WORLD ARE IN AUSTRALIA (2021).

Source: THE University Ranking

Number of Universities in Top 100 by country (2021)

20 Universities among Top 100 with highest international students proportion (2021)

Growth in Number of International Students in Australia

Australia is one of the best destinations for international students.

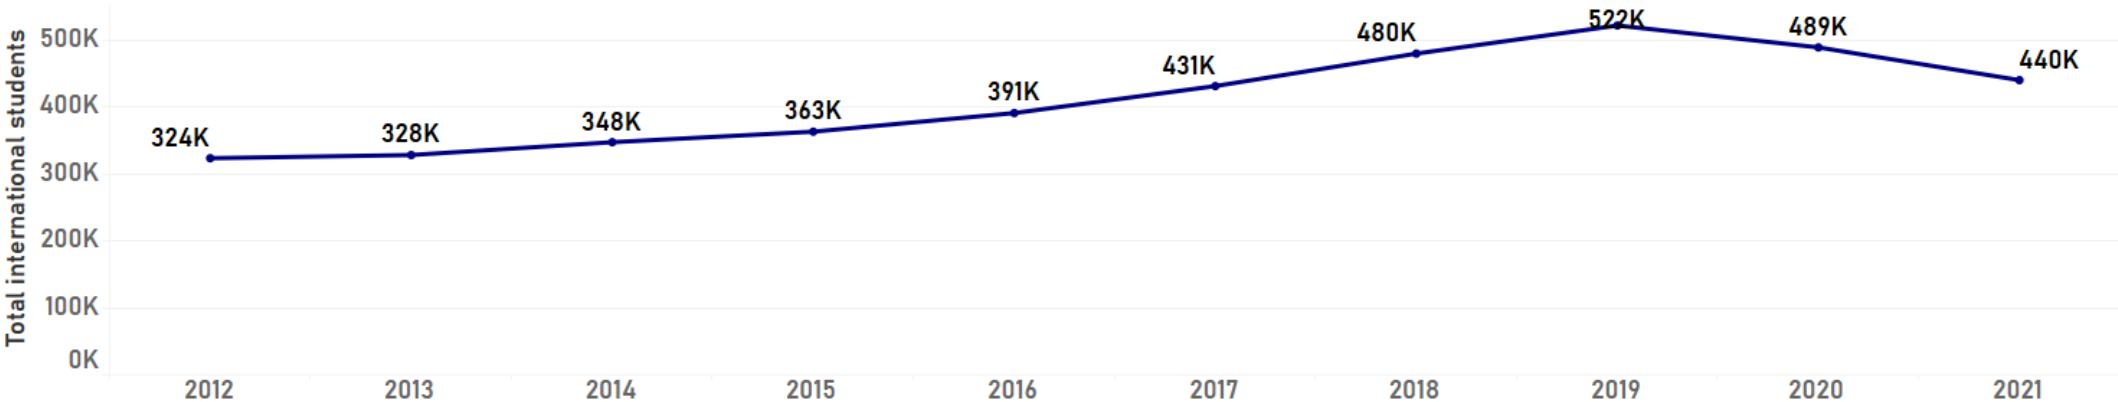

There has been a strong growth of international students in Australia.

VIC, NSW and QLD are the top destinations for international students.

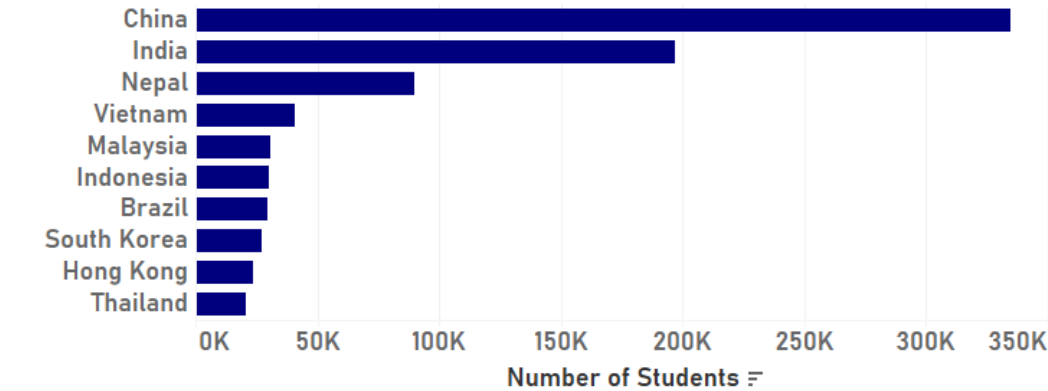

Most international students are pursuing Business and IT fields.

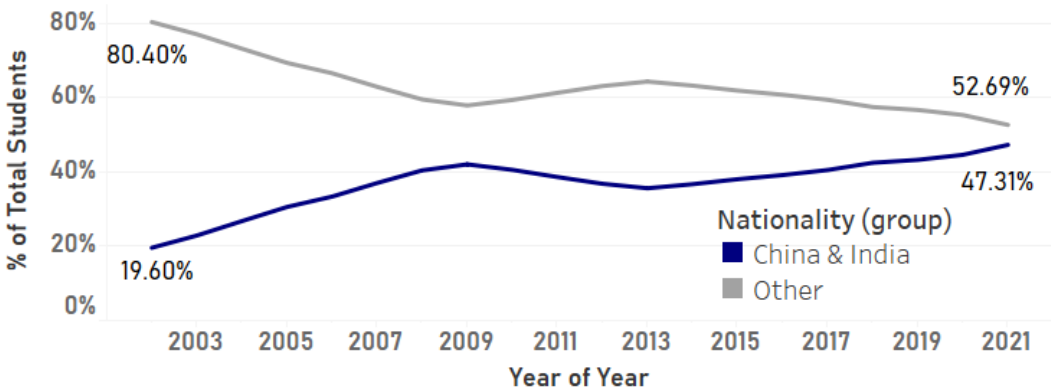

Number of international students, 2012-2021

Top 10 countries of origin

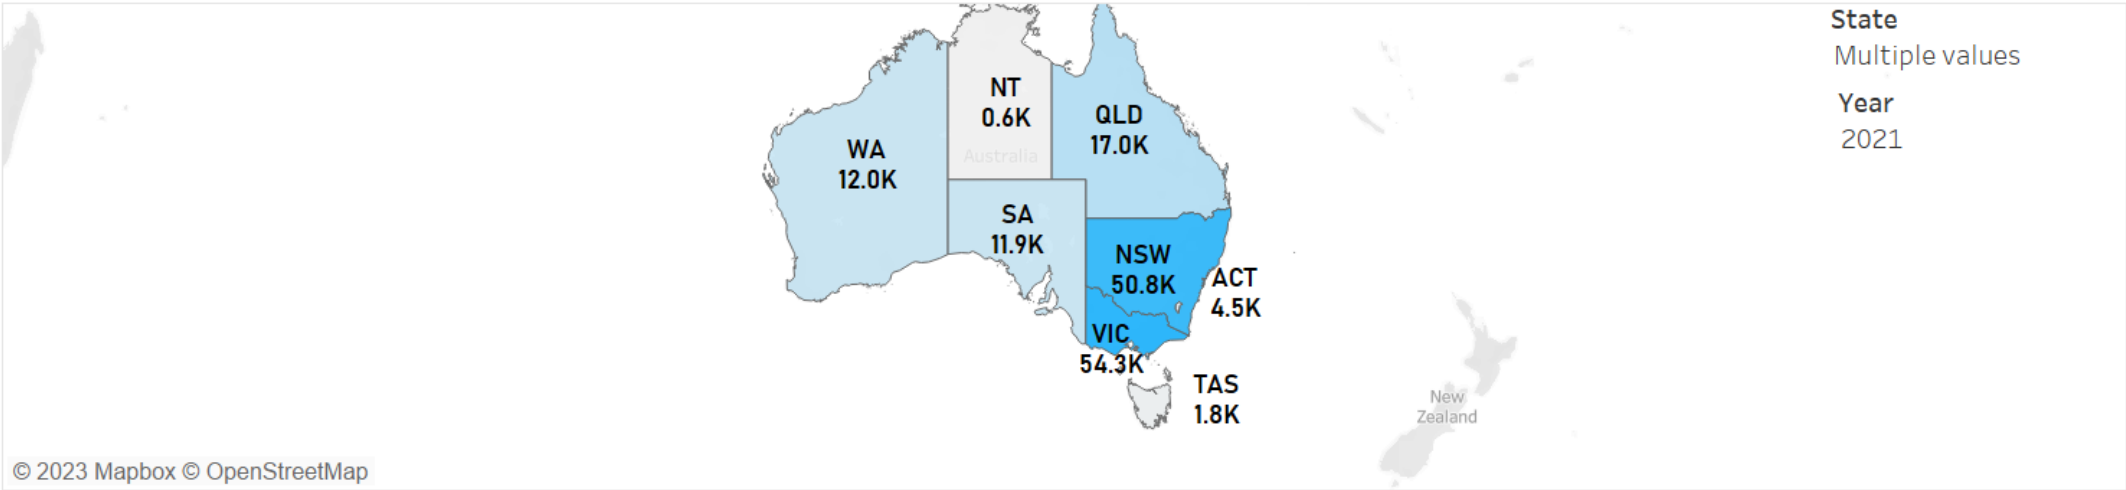

Share of Australian international students, 2002-2021

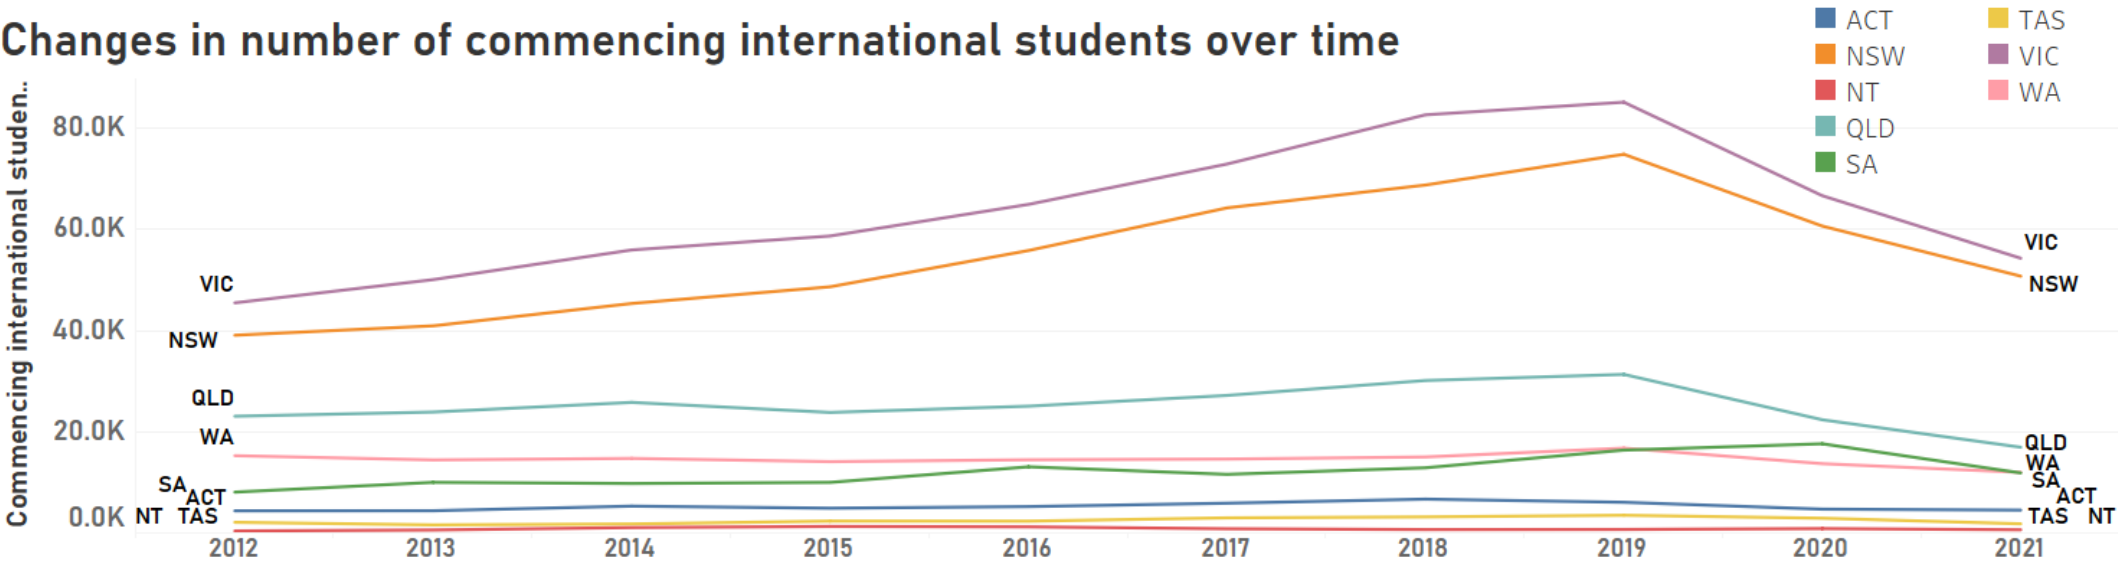

Growth in Number of International Students in Australia

Australia is one of the best destinations fo..	There has been a strong growth of international students in Australia.	VIC, NSW and QLD are the top destinations for international students.	Most international students are pursuing Business and IT fields.	However, Macquarie University's internatio..
--	--	---	--	--

Number of international students commencing in Australia

Changes in number of commencing international students over time

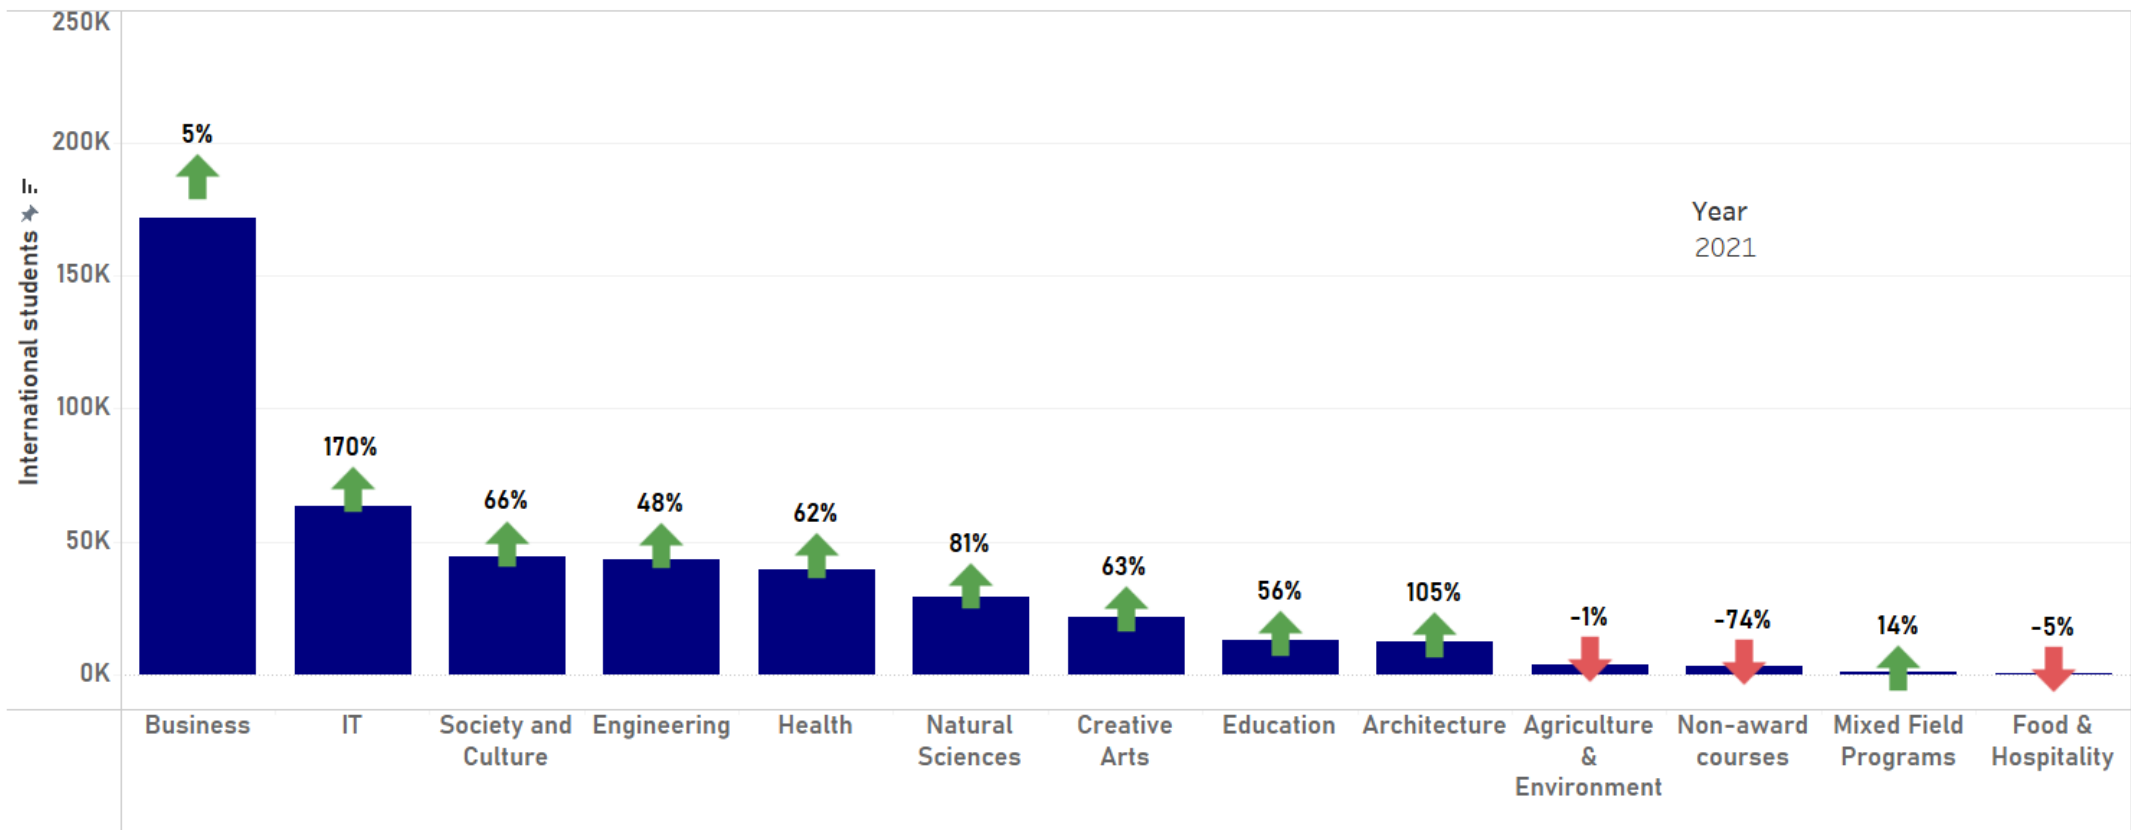

Growth in Number of International Students in Australia

There has been a strong growth of international students in Australia.	VIC, NSW and QLD are the top destinations for international students.	Most international students are pursuing Business and IT fields.	However, Macquarie University's international students cohort has shrunk.
--	---	--	---

Business 38.68%	Information Technology 14.20%	Society & Culture 9.92%	Engineering 9.72%
--------------------	----------------------------------	----------------------------	----------------------

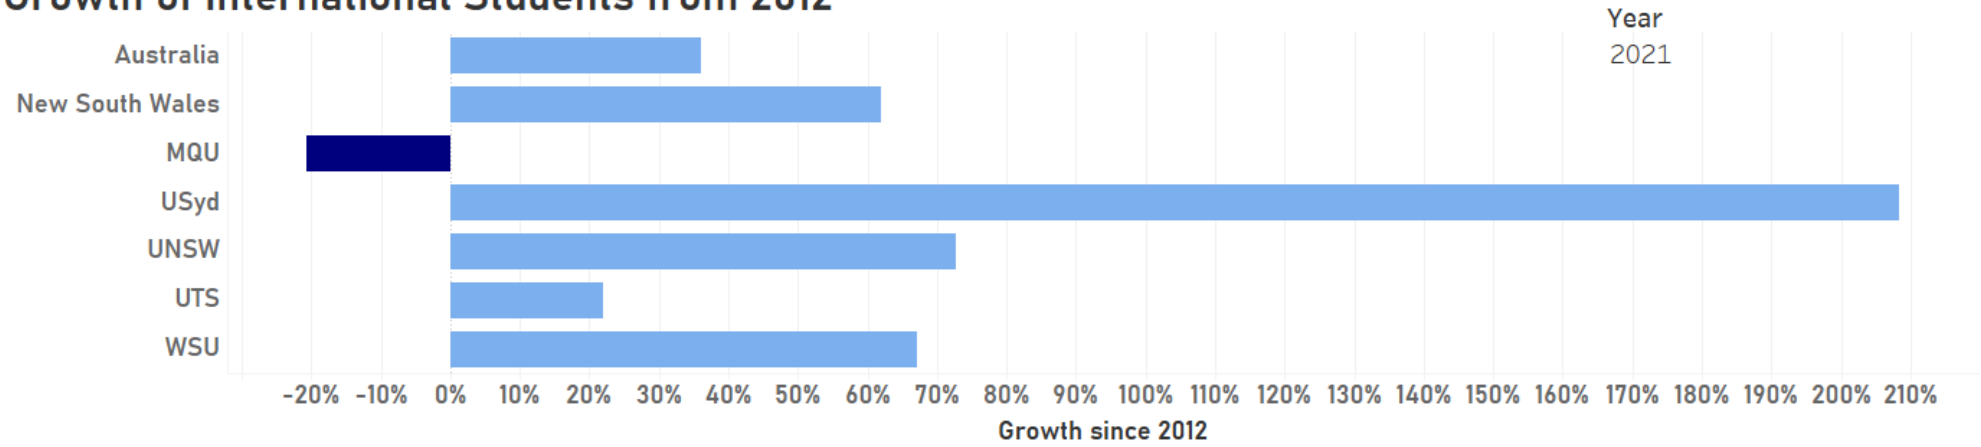

Number of International Students by Field of Education (% Growth since 2012)

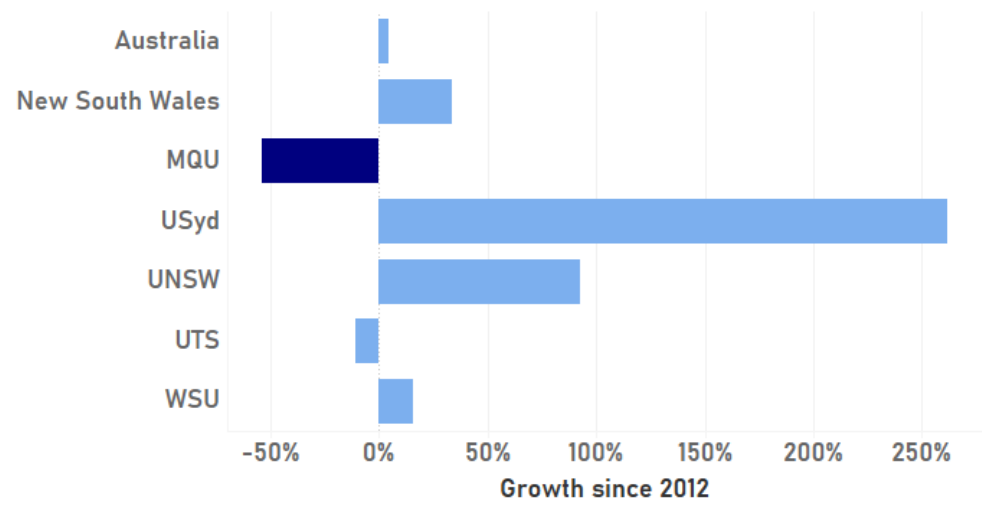

Growth in Number of International Students in Australia

There has been a strong growth of international students in Australia.	VIC, NSW and QLD are the top destinations for international students.	Most international students are pursuing Business and IT fields.	However, Macquarie University's international students cohort has shrunk.
--	---	--	---

Growth of International Students from 2012

Growth of International Students studying Business from 2012

Growth of International Students studying IT from 2012

